AGCO CORPORATION

AGCO Corporation ("AGCO," "we," "us," or the "Company") was incorporated in Delaware in April 1991. Our executive offices are located at 4205 River Green Parkway, Duluth, Georgia 30096, and our telephone number is 770-813-9200. Unless otherwise indicated, all references in this Prospectus to the Company include our subsidiaries.

AGCO Corporation is a leading manufacturer and distributor of agricultural equipment and related replacement parts throughout the world. We sell a full range of agricultural equipment, including tractors, combines, self-propelled sprayers, hay tools, forage equipment and implements. Our products are widely recognized in the agricultural equipment industry and are marketed under the following brand names: AGCO(R), AGCO(R)Allis, AGCOSTAR(R), Ag-Chem(R), Farmhand(R), FENDT(TM), Fieldstar(R), GLEANER(R), Glencoe(R), Hesston(R), Lor*Al(R), Massey Ferguson(R), New Idea(R), RoGator(R), SOILTEQ, Spra-Coupe(R), Terra-Gator(R), Tye(R), White Tractors, White Planters and Willmar(R). We distribute most of our products through a combination of approximately 7,350 independent dealers and distributors, associates and licensees. In addition, we provide retail financing in North America, the United Kingdom, France, Germany, Spain, Ireland and Brazil through our finance joint ventures with Cooperative Centrale Raiffeisen-Boerenleenbank B.A., "Rabobank Nederland," which we refer to in this document as "Rabobank." For the year ended December 31, 2001, we had net sales of $2.5 billion.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in our common stock involves a high degree of risk. You should carefully consider the risks described below and the other information contained in this prospectus and in our other filings incorporated by reference before deciding to invest in our common stock. The risks described below and in our other filings incorporated by reference are not the only ones facing our company. Additional risks not presently known to us, or which we currently consider immaterial may also adversely affect our company. If any of the following risks actually occur, our business, financial condition and operating results could be materially adversely affected. In such case, the trading price of our common stock could decline, and you could lose part or all of your investment.

OUR COSTS OF COMPLIANCE WITH ENVIRONMENTAL LAWS AND REGULATIONS MAY NEGATIVELY IMPACT OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

Our operations and products are subject to increasingly stringent environmental laws and regulations in the countries in which we operate. Such regulations govern, among other things, emissions into the air, discharges into water, the use, handling and disposal of hazardous substances, waste disposal and the remediation of soil and groundwater contamination. To our knowledge, we are currently complying in all material respects with applicable environmental laws and regulations, however if we were to fall out of compliance with any such regulations, our results of operations may be negatively effected.

OUR LABOR FORCE IS HEAVILY UNIONIZED AND OUR CONTRACTUAL AND LEGAL OBLIGATIONS UNDER COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENTS AND LABOR LAWS MAY IMPAIR OUR ABILITY TO ACHIEVE COST SAVINGS.

A majority of our employees, principally at our manufacturing facilities, are represented by collective bargaining agreements with expiration dates ranging from 2002 to 2007. These collective bargaining agreements could impair our flexibility in streamlining existing manufacturing facilities and in restructuring our combined businesses.

OUR FINANCIAL RESULTS ARE HEAVILY DEPENDENT UPON THE AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY AND FACTORS THAT ADVERSELY AFFECT THE AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY GENERALLY WILL ADVERSELY AFFECT OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS.

Our success is heavily dependent upon the vitality of the agricultural industry. Historically, the agricultural industry, including the agricultural equipment business, has been cyclical and subject to a variety of economic, governmental and weather conditions. Sales of agricultural equipment generally are related to the health of the agricultural industry, which is affected by farm income, farm land values, farm cash receipts and farm profits, all of which reflect levels of commodity prices, acreage planted, crop yields, demand, government policies and government subsidies. Sales are also influenced by economic conditions, interest rate and exchange rate levels and the availability of financing. Weather conditions can also affect farmers' buying decisions. During previous economic downturns in the farm sector, the agricultural equipment business experienced a general decline in sales and profitability, and we expect our business to remain subject to similar market fluctuation in the future.

THE AGRICULTURAL EQUIPMENT INDUSTRY IS HIGHLY SEASONAL AND SEASONAL FLUCTUATIONS MAY ADVERSELY AFFECT OUR QUARTERLY RESULTS OF OPERATIONS AND, IN TURN, THE PRICE OF OUR COMMON STOCK.

The agricultural equipment business is highly seasonal, with farmers traditionally purchasing agricultural equipment in the Spring and Fall in conjunction with the major planting and harvesting seasons. Our net sales and income from operations have historically been the lowest in the first quarter and have increased in subsequent quarters as dealers increase inventory in anticipation of increased retail sales in the third and fourth quarters.

WE FACE INTENSE COMPETITION AND OUR RESULTS OF OPERATIONS MAY BE ADVERSELY AFFECTED BY COMPETITIVE PRESSURES.

The agricultural equipment business is highly competitive, particularly in North America, Europe and Latin America. We compete with several large national and international companies which, like us, offer a full line of agricultural equipment, as well as with numerous short-line and specialty manufacturers and suppliers of farm equipment products. Some of our competitors, including Deere & Co. and CNH Global, are substantially larger than we are and have greater financial and other resources at their disposal. In addition, in some markets, smaller regional competitors with significant market share in a single country or group of countries also compete with us. There can be no assurance that these competitors will not substantially increase the resources devoted to the development and marketing, including discounting, of products competitive with our products.

Competitive pressures in the agricultural equipment business may affect the market prices of new and used equipment which, in turn, may adversely affect our sales margins and results of operations.

OUR OPERATIONS MAY BE ADVERSELY AFFECTED BY DOMESTIC AND FOREIGN GOVERNMENTAL REGULATION OF AGRICULTURAL PRODUCTS.

Domestic and foreign political developments and government regulations and policies directly affect the agricultural industry in the United States and abroad and indirectly affect the agricultural equipment business in which we operate. The application or modification of existing laws, regulations or policies or the adoption of new laws, regulations, trade agreements or policies adversely affecting the agricultural industry could have an adverse effect on our business.

WE HAVE SIGNIFICANT INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS AND, AS A RESULT, WE ARE EXPOSED TO RISKS RELATED TO LAWS OF OTHER COUNTRIES, TAXES, ECONOMIC CONDITIONS, FLUCTUATIONS IN CURRENCY RATES, LABOR SUPPLY AND RELATIONS, POLITICAL CONDITIONS AND POLICIES OF FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS. THESE RISKS MAY DELAY OR REDUCE OUR REALIZATION OF VALUE FROM ITS INTERNATIONAL OPERATIONS.

We derived $1.8 billion, or 70%, of our revenues for the year ended December 31, 2001, from sales in foreign countries. The primary foreign countries in which we do business are Germany, France, Brazil, The United Kingdom and Ireland. Additionally, we have significant manufacturing operations in Germany, The United Kingdom, France, Denmark and Brazil. Our production costs, profit margins and competitive position are affected by the strength of the currencies in countries where we manufacture or purchase goods relative to the strength of the currencies in countries where our products are sold. In addition, our results of operations and financial position may be adversely affected by fluctuations in foreign currencies and by translations of the financial statements of our foreign subsidiaries from local currencies into U.S. dollars. Our international operations are also subject to various risks that are not present in domestic operations, including restrictions on dividends and restrictions on the repatriation of funds.

Additionally, trends abroad such as farm consolidations may affect the agricultural equipment market. Foreign developing markets may present special risks, such as unavailability of financing, inflation, slow economic growth, changes in currency relationships or price controls.

WE MAY ENCOUNTER DIFFICULTIES IN INTEGRATING THE CHALLENGER TRACTOR LINE AND MAY NOT FULLY ACHIEVE, OR ACHIEVE WITHIN THE ANTICIPATED TIME FRAME, EXPECTED STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES, COST SAVINGS AND OTHER EXPECTED BENEFITS OF THE ACQUISITION.

We expect to realize strategic and other benefits as a result of our acquisition of the Challenger tractor line, including, among other things,

- - expansion of our product line;
- - cross-selling opportunities with the Caterpillar distributor network; and
- - revenue enhancements.

However, it is impossible to predict with certainty whether, or to what extent, these benefits will be realized or whether we will be able to integrate the Challenger tractor line in a timely and effective manner. In addition:

- - the MT series of the Challenger tractor line is new and there have been no sales of this series. We cannot be certain about the market acceptance of this series and the amount of any future sales; and
- - the costs of integrating the Challenger tractor line may be higher than we expect, which may adversely impact our results of operations.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENTS CONCERNING FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document and the documents incorporated by reference into this document contain numerous forward-looking statements about the financial condition, results of operations, cash flows, financing plans, business strategies, operating efficiencies, capital and other expenditures, competitive positions, growth opportunities for existing products, plans and objectives of management, markets for stock or ownership interests of AGCO and other matters. The words "estimate," "project," "intend," "expect," "believe," "forecast" and similar expressions are intended to identify these forward-looking statements, but some of these statements may use other phrasing. Any statement in this document that is not a historical fact is a forward-looking statement. Such forward-looking statements, wherever they occur in this document, are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of our senior management and involve a number of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements. Important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those suggested by the forward-looking statements are described below and in the "Risk Factors" section of this document. Although we believe that the statements we have made are based on reasonable assumptions, they are based on current information and beliefs and, accordingly, we can give no assurance that the results suggested by these statements will be achieved. These factors include, but are not limited to, general economic and capital market conditions, the demand for agricultural products, world grain stocks, crop production, commodity prices, farm income, farm land values, government farm programs and legislation, pervasive livestock diseases, the levels of new and used field inventories, weather conditions, interest and foreign currency exchanges rates, the conversion to the Euro, pricing and product actions taken by competitors, customer access to credit, production disruptions, supply and capacity constraints, cost reduction and control initiatives, research and development efforts, labor relations, dealer and distributor actions, technological difficulties, changes in environmental, international trade and other laws, and political and economic uncertainty in various areas of the world. Further information concerning factors that could significantly affect our results is included in this document and our filings with the SEC. Except to the extent required by applicable law, we expressly disclaim any obligation to publicly release any revisions to these "forward-looking statements" to reflect events or circumstances after the date of this document or to reflect the occurrence of unanticipated events. In addition to the foregoing, there can be no assurances that (i) all of the factors affecting our businesses have been correctly identified and assessed; (ii) the publicly available and other information, upon which the analysis contained in this document is based, is complete or correct; (iii) the analysis contained in this document is correct; or (iv) the strategies, which are based in part on this analysis, will be successful.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Except under the circumstances described below, the selling shareholder will receive all of the proceeds from the sale of shares of common stock offered by this prospectus. We have agreed to bear certain expenses associated with registering such shares under federal and state securities laws under the terms of the asset purchase agreement described below. We are registering the shares for sale to provide the selling shareholder with freely tradeable securities, but the registration of such shares does not necessarily mean that any of such shares will be offered or sold by the selling shareholder.

Under the registration statement, of which this prospectus is a part, the selling shareholder may sell or distribute up to an aggregate of 1,020,356 shares of our common stock in one or more transactions. These shares were originally delivered by us to the selling shareholder on March 5, 2002 in connection with our acquisition of the design, assembly and marketing of Caterpillar's new MT Series of Challenger tractors. The terms of the acquisition were set forth in the asset purchase agreement among Caterpillar Inc., the selling shareholder and us. The acquired assets consist of technology, trademarks, trade names, inventory, and property plant and equipment. There were no accounts receivable acquired or liabilities assumed in the transaction, and all rights and obligations relating to past sales of the prior series of the Challenger product line remain with Caterpillar. The results of operations for this product line will be included in our results from and after the date of the acquisition.

Pursuant to the asset purchase agreement, we agreed to file a registration statement, of which this prospectus is part, with the SEC to enable the selling shareholder to resell the shares of stock it received in the transaction. Under the terms of the asset purchase agreement, upon certain circumstances either the selling shareholder or AGCO may be entitled to receive payments from the other depending on the price per share at which the selling shareholder sells shares of AGCO common stock. With respect to any sales by the selling shareholder of AGCO shares within a period of ninety days after the initial effectiveness of the registration statement registering the resale of the shares, the selling shareholder will pay to AGCO any excess of the sales proceeds over $20.58 per share and AGCO will pay to the selling shareholder any shortfall of the sales proceeds under $18.62 per share. To the extent that any shares held by the selling shareholder remain unsold after the ninety day period, the selling shareholder is required to pay to AGCO an amount equal to the excess, if any, of the five day average of the closing stock price of AGCO's common stock as of such date over $20.58. The following table reflects the cash to be paid or received by AGCO assuming all of the AGCO shares issued to the selling shareholder are sold at the price per share indicated:

Price Per Share of AGCO Common Stock Sold -----	Cash to be (Paid)/Received By AGCO ----- (in millions)
$ 17.00	$ (1.7)
18.00	(0.6)
18.50	(0.1)
21.00	0.4
21.50	0.9

To the extent that we are required to pay to the selling shareholder any shortfall of the sales proceeds, we intend to fund such payments from borrowings under our revolving credit facility. To the extent that we receive any payments from the selling shareholder relating to the sale of the shares, we intend to use the proceeds to repay outstanding borrowings under our revolving credit facility. Our revolving credit facility is a $350.0 million multi-currency revolving credit facility with Rabobank that will mature in October 2005. Interest accrues on borrowings outstanding under the facility, at our option, at either (1) LIBOR plus a margin based on a ratio of our senior debt to EBITDA, as adjusted, or (2) the administrative agent's base lending rate or the federal funds rate plus a margin ranging between 0.625% and 1.5%, whichever is higher. At December 31, 2001, interest rates on our borrowings ranged from 4.6% to 6.3%, and the weighted average interest rate during 2001 was 6.8%. Including the impact of an interest rate swap contract outstanding in 2001, the weighted average interest rate was 6.6%. At March 31, 2002, we had approximately $185.9 million outstanding under this facility.

SELLING SHAREHOLDER

In connection with our acquisition of the design, assembly and marketing of Caterpillar's new MT Series of Challenger tractors, we agreed, subject to various conditions, to register all of the shares of our common stock delivered by us to Caterpillar Agricultural Products Inc. in connection with the acquisition. Prior to the acquisition, the selling shareholder did not own any shares of our common stock.

The following table sets forth information with respect to the selling shareholder as of April 4, 2002. This table assumes that the selling shareholder offers for sale all of those shares of common stock indicated. The common stock offered by this prospectus may be offered from time to time by the selling shareholder named below, or any of their pledgees, donees, transferees or other successors in interest. The amounts set forth below are based upon information provided to us by the selling shareholder, or on our records, and are accurate to the best of our knowledge. It is possible, however, that the selling shareholder may acquire or dispose of additional shares of common stock from time to time after the date of this prospectus.

NAME -----	RELATIONSHIP -----	NO. OF SHARES -----

DESCRIPTION OF COMMON STOCK

The following description of material terms of the shares does not purport to be complete and is subject to, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to our Certificate of Incorporation, as amended to date (the "Certificate of Incorporation"), and our Amended and Restated Bylaws, as amended to date. A copy of each of these documents is filed as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part, and are incorporated by reference into this prospectus.

Our Certificate of Incorporation authorizes that the holders of our common stock are entitled to one vote for each share held on all matters submitted to a vote of shareholders. Holders of our common stock have no cumulative voting rights. Holders of a majority of the shares of common stock are entitled to vote in any election of directors and may elect all of the directors standing for election. Subject to any preferential dividend rights of outstanding preferred stock, holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably such dividends, if any, as may be declared by the board of directors out of funds legally available therefrom. Upon the liquidation, dissolution or winding up of AGCO, the holders of common stock are entitled to receive ratably the net assets of AGCO available after the payment of all debts and other liabilities and subject to the prior rights of any outstanding preferred stock. Holders of common stock have no preemptive, subscription, redemption or conversion rights. The rights, preferences and privileges of holders of common stock are subject to, and may be adversely affected by, the rights of the holders of shares of any series of preferred stock which AGCO already has or may designate and issue in the future.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

The selling shareholder, or its pledgees, transferees, or any of its successors in interest selling shares received from a named selling shareholder as a distribution or other non-sale-related transfer after the date of this prospectus (all of whom may be selling shareholders), have advised us that it may sell the shares offered by this prospectus from time to time on any stock exchange or automated interdealer quotation system on which the shares are listed, in the over-the-counter market, in privately negotiated transactions or otherwise, at fixed prices that may be changed, at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at prices otherwise negotiated. The selling shareholder may offer the shares at various times after the date of this prospectus in one or more of the following methods, without limitation:

- (a) block trades in which the broker or dealer so engaged will attempt to sell the shares as agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal to facilitate the transaction;
- (b) purchases by a broker or dealer as principal and resale by the broker or dealer for its own account pursuant to this prospectus;
- (c) an exchange distribution in accordance with the rules of any stock exchange on which the shares are listed;
- (d) ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker solicits purchases;
- (e) privately negotiated transactions;
- (f) short sales;
- (g) through the writing of options on the shares, whether or not the options are listed on an options exchange;
- (h) through the distribution of the shares by any selling shareholder to its partners, members, stockholders or creditors;
- (i) one or more underwritten offerings on a firm commitment or best efforts basis; or
- (j) in a combination of any of the above methods of sale.

We do not know of any arrangements by the selling shareholder for the sale of any of the shares.

The selling shareholder may engage brokers and dealers to sell the shares, and any brokers or dealers may arrange for other brokers or dealers to participate in effecting sales of the shares. These brokers, dealers or underwriters may act as principals, or as an agent of a selling shareholder. Broker-dealers may agree with a selling shareholder to sell a specified number of the shares at a stipulated price per share. If the broker-dealer is unable to sell shares acting as agent for a selling shareholder, it may purchase as principal any unsold shares at the stipulated price. Broker-dealers who acquire shares as principals may thereafter resell the shares from time to time in transactions in any stock exchange or automated interdealer quotation system on which the shares are then listed, at prices and on terms then prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to the then-current market price or in negotiated transactions. Broker-dealers may use block transactions and sales to and through broker-dealers, including transactions of the nature described above.

From time to time, a selling shareholder may pledge, hypothecate or grant a security interest in some or all of the shares owned by it. The pledgees, secured parties or persons to whom the shares have been hypothecated will, upon foreclosure in the event of default, be deemed to be selling shareholders. The number of a selling shareholder's shares offered under this prospectus will decrease as and when it takes such actions. The plan of distribution for that selling shareholder's shares will otherwise remain unchanged. In addition, a selling shareholder may, from time to time, sell the shares short, and, in those instances, this prospectus may be delivered in connection with the short sales and the shares offered under this prospectus may be used to cover short sales.

To the extent required under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, the aggregate amount of selling shareholder's shares being offered and the terms of the offering, the names of any agents, brokers, dealers or underwriters and any applicable commission with respect to a particular offer will be set forth in an accompanying prospectus supplement. Any underwriters, dealers, brokers or agents participating in the distribution of the shares may receive compensation in the form of underwriting discounts, concessions, commissions or fees from a selling shareholder and/or purchasers of selling shareholder's shares, for whom they may act (which compensation as to a particular broker-dealer might be in excess of customary commissions).

The selling shareholder will be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and any discounts, concessions, commissions or fees received by it and any profit on the resale of the shares sold by it will be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under such Act. In addition, any underwriters, brokers, dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the shares offered hereby may be deemed to be "underwriters" within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and any discounts, concessions, commissions or fees received by them and any profit on the resale of the shares sold by them may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under such Act.

A selling shareholder may enter into hedging transactions with broker-dealers and the broker-dealers may engage in short sales of the shares in the course of hedging the positions they assume with that selling shareholder, including, without limitation, in connection with distributions of the shares by those broker-dealers. A selling shareholder may enter into option or other transactions with broker-dealers that involve the delivery of the shares offered hereby to the broker-dealers, who may then resell or otherwise transfer those shares. A selling shareholder may also loan or pledge the shares offered hereby to a broker-dealer and the broker-dealer may sell the shares offered hereby so loaned or upon a default may sell or otherwise transfer the pledged shares offered hereby.

The selling shareholder and other persons participating in the sale or distribution of the shares will be subject to applicable provisions of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and the rules and regulations thereunder, including Regulation M. This regulation may limit the timing of purchases and sales of any of the shares by the selling shareholder and any other person. The anti-manipulation rules under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 may apply to sales of shares in the market and to the activities of the selling shareholder and its affiliates. Furthermore, Regulation M may restrict the ability of any person engaged in the distribution of the shares to engage in market-making activities with respect to the particular shares being distributed for a period of up to five business days before the distribution. These restrictions may affect the marketability of the shares and the ability of any person or entity to engage in market-making activities with respect to the shares.

Pursuant to an agreement between us and Caterpillar, we agreed to register the shares under the Securities Act of 1933, and, with certain exceptions, to keep the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part effective and usable until the earlier of (i) six (6) months following the initial date such Registration Statement is declared effective by the SEC, or (ii) the date that all of the shares covered by the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part have been sold or distributed. We have agreed to pay certain expenses in connection with the preparation and filing of the registration statement and this prospectus, excluding underwriting discounts, concessions, commissions or fees and expenses of the selling shareholder, such as fees and expenses of counsel of such selling shareholder.

Except under the circumstances described under the heading "Use of Proceeds," we will not receive any proceeds from sales of any shares by a selling shareholder.

We can not assure you that the selling shareholder will sell all or any portion of the shares offered hereby.

A corporation may indemnify such person against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by such person in connection with such action, suit or proceeding provided that, such person acted in good faith and in a manner such person reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the corporation's best interests, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe such person's conduct was unlawful.   - (i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;
  - (ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in the registration statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the SEC pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20 percent change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the "calculation of Registration Fee" table in the effective registration statement;

The undersigned registrant hereby further undertakes that:

- (1) For purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, the information omitted from the form of prospectus filed as part of this registration statement in reliance under Rule 430A and contained in a form of prospectus filed by the registrant pursuant to Rule 424(b)(1) or (4) or 497(h) under the Securities Act of 1933 shall be deemed to be part of this registration statement as of the time it was declared effective.
- (2) For the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each post-effective amendment that contains a form of prospectus shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.
